

Hit the Road (Again)

Oxymoron

Daily other places and we're still going on Plenty of new faces cos the nights are long Tearing down the highway, full speed ahead miles uncounted, the van? become our bed
...I really missed all that

All bottles empty so we gotta stop hey what a country we're not sold a drop heading for the venue for another kill out and up now because we're on the bill
...and play we will

Chaos across the nation - we HIT THE ROAD again Chaos and fun and booze for free that's how life's to be Chaos across the nation let's go to HIT THE ROAD again (...up the next decade)

Living like a rover, troubles where we get getting pulled over - oh, how we're used to that One room at a motel for the six of us the rest too short cos our next show's away some hours
...and we stuck in bars
