

Bye Bye

P-Square

bye bye bye bye bye bye
i could tell you bye bye baby you know that i ve been watching you lately its so sad ive tried everything loving you but you keep telling me lie baby what you see is what you get (2) now i left when you left me i will feel when you left me now you back seeking for my loving i forgive you anyway

but there is something that i want you to know baby

when these eyes cry again you dont lie when these arms fall again you no try when these heart brake again girl i go tell you bye bye bye bye i dont tell you my mind when we touch girl heart cos i could hear you call another brother these pain are too much we sosome to love one another eh just like bread and butter you take away my heart and you dey make me dey suffer eh but i got question for you what did i do cause your cup don dey full what did i say abi you think say i be fool

now you back seeking for my loving

when this arms fall again you no try when this heart brake again baby girl i go tell you bye bye
