

Blow

Paddy and the Rats

At human dawn
Having sex was just a need for fun
Those times are gone
Turned to arrogance since Christians won

Should be natural expectations
Better do it like the animals
Not a se* revolution
Why do you think it's anomalous?

I say no, I don't want you being taunted
But let it go, it was always what I wanted

I say blow, blow, blow me with devotion
You say no, no give me some emotion

Ain't gonna change
It's encoded deep inside our genes
There's nothing strange
That's why we try to get inside your jeans

I can't feel the way you feel it (Ooooh)
Do you think it's just a man's disease?
Don't know why you must conceal it (Ooooh)
This game was made to please

I say no, I don't want you being taunted
But let it go, it was always what I wanted

I say blow, blow, blow me with devotion
You say no, no give me some emotion

I say blow, blow, blow me with devotion
You say no, no give me some emotion
