

Hide Myself In You

Paige

Who is here? Surely no one else is here
Tell me who cares, no one else appears to
And then there's You
You lift me up when I am face down on the ground
You harbor me when I need shelter from the crowd
You come around
And life becomes a simple game again
Just to know You just to know You, Lord is why I'm in this world
I'm in this world I'm in
Chorus
Sometimes I think it'd be easier to die for You than to live for You
But You will stay faithful, Lord
And You will stay true
For now I'll hide myself in You
Who is here? I cannot do this on my own
Are they aware that I am suffering alone I feel alone
Close the door, enter into the secret place
I'm needing more of strength and more of Your grace
In the secret place
Where life becomes a simple game again
Just to know You just to know You, Lord, is why I'm in this world
I'm in this world I'm in
Chorus
Bridge
So when I feel like there is no one for me
I'll hide myself in You
I know the ending to this so called story
You're gonna see me through
Just like You always do
Chorus
