

I've got sleep deprivation
A nocturnalist, chasing dreams
It's just the curse of it
And are, I and are you fearlessness, -ness?
Where is the realness?
I will dive underneath
And I will scrath underneath
There's nothing left
There's nothing left anymore
And it's disgraceful this world
All we have is gravity
All we are is gravity
So lonely, so it is

So dysfunctional
On my lips
So where did conversation go?
Swept beneath the garden soil
So where did conversation go?
I don't know
We're just air in the water
The silhouettes, they destroy us
The fake this, fake that, it's just another episode
All we have is gravity
All we are is gravity
Gravity, gravity
Gravity, gravity...
