Exit mould (live)

Pale Forest

Once again surrounded by moving walls vacating the innermost of human halls Searching, I'm heading for the light Walking closer without fright

Whats that? A tricle, a shiver down her spine Erase memory be divine

Why do you remain silent brother? Why don't you speak your mind sister? Why walk the path of shoulders cold? Exit mould

I'm here again, among trees and green meadows and people in countless rows Searching, I tread the paths in need of light embracing everyone in sight

Whats this? A story of feasts and wine? Erase memory be divine

Why do you remain silent brother? Why don't you speak your mind sister? Why walk the path of shoulders cold? Exit mould
