

Lie

Pankix

The more you want.
It seems like, seems like,
seems you are the one.
It seems like seems like
dream
But you don't know.
Ow, ow, ow.

Hide a dirt on your back,
still not free and still not dead.
Let me dream it's not my fault,
my true love is getting cold.

Let me hear the secret voice.
I will try with no remorse.
I will leave with open mind.
I don't care if you are blind.

I will stay in shadow light.
I will pray I could fight.
Let me dream - once far away.
Let me start the brand new day.

I will try as hard I can.
Two to one on me again.
All the time I had all.
I have all but still want more.

Ref:
And I will lie to your eyes
And you my fool won't realize.
