Blame the Bible

Pansy Division

He's a politician with a love of the lord
He's getting kickbacks from his seat on the church board
He voted no, of course, on your civil rights
And if he gets elected he'd reverse that, all right

Your basic needs are not his priority
He's got his reputation to oversee
So if you're gay or if you just don't fit in
He'll introduce you to the wages of sin

He hides behind the Bible's libel
And wants to scare you straight
He's redesigned the Bible's libel
To justify his hate

Here's another Christian who swears he's not gay
When asked if there's a woman, he'd rather not say
And what about this asshole caught with kiddie porn?
He's funneling funds through churches "to protect the unborn"

I can't believe, I can't believe what they say
They'll say anything to get their own way
They have no limits, they'll just blatantly lie
In the name of Jesus it's all justified

They're quoting all the Bible's libel
The ones that suit their needs
Promoting all the Bible's libel
With words but not their deeds

What's written in the Bible is libel

No matter what you've heard
We're sick of all the Bible's libel
So don't believe a word

Do you want him for your president? NO
Do you want him for your president? NO
Or her, do you want her for your president? NO
Or him, what about him for your president? HELL NO

Do you want religion controlling your life? HELL NO
Do you want religion controlling your life? HELL NO
Do you want religion controlling your life? HELL NO
Then I want you to repeat after me

We don't need the Bible, Bible
So throw it all away
Yeah, we don't heed the Bible, Bible
Any-f*cking-way

What's written in the Bible is libel
But slanders you and me
So spit into the Bible, Bible
And just be free

Isn't it about time we gave up on Christianity?

I mean really, it's so unnecessary and so deceitful
Using verses from the Bible to validate their hate
Just look at all the damage they've caused
So let's take away the one thing they use to perpetuate this worldwide fraud
And tear up the Bible
