

So many romantic dreams
Are merely bedroom schemes
It's such a nice ideal
Too bad it's rarely real

We're animals at the core
Instincts we can't ignore
You think your civilized
You just might be surprised
People talk about

Luv luv luv luv luv
And it sounds like
Blah blah blah blah blah
Cause they really mean
Sex sex sex sex
People just want to connect

I believe in love that's true
I'm a sucker just like you
But real love don't stand a chance
In absurd pop song romance

Grow up with my point of view
It's easy to see right through
You start to feel deceived
Throw out what you believe
People sing about

Luv luv luv luv luv
And it sounds like
Blah blah blah blah blah
Cause they reall mean
Sex sex sex sex
People just want to connect

We've been fed too much bull about
Luv luv luv luv luv
And it sounds like
Blah blah blah blah blah
Cause they reall mean
Sex sex sex sex
People just want to connect
