

Do you remember me?
I am the one who lived.
Have you forgotten me,
someone who died?

The soul is blank, the wishes hollow.
The light I follow has gone too dark.

And my view is blank,
my thoughts've been spoken.
My dream is not dead, to let it
haunt me 'till the end.

The one I thought I know
has betrayed me - and that's me.
It's all blank now, do you see?
I turned off the light - did you?

Drown inside of me,
I'm a blank file now.
I'm blank, can't you see?
Blame for a crown.

My reflection is so blank,
my lines've been read.
My hideaway is not my land,
it's not a beginning nor an end.

Drown inside of me,
I'm a blank file now.
I'm blank, can't you see?
Blame for a crown.
Deep inside of you,
you're a blank file now.
We are blank, don't you see?
Blame for a crown.
