

For the Iron Cross

Panzerchrist

For the iron cross
We fight and we die

Forward we surge through breach
Cannons roar, chaplains preach
Another shall fall, another take his place
We come towards you at breakneck pace

The crucifix lies shattered
The crescent moon has set

All I see is a tide of steel
No secret hidden, no truth to reveal
War is all I hold in my heart
Final assault, your gods will depart

The next push will be their annihilation
First through the breach is the greatest hero
The crucifix lies shattered
The crescent moon has set

Forward we surge through breach
Cannons roar, chaplains preach
Another shall fall, another take his place
We come towards you at breakneck pace

No more searching, I know what I strive for
The gods are beneath me, I know what I adore
For the iron cross
