

March Out of the Darkness

Papa Roach

It feels like the end of the world
It seems like nobody cares
Is it real, am I going insane?
Am I ever gonna change my ways?

Isolated, separated
Sick of the mess I created
The pressure keeps rising
When the truth is what I'm finding

We march out of the darkness
We ravel in the flames
The mission is accomplished
I'm ready for the cage

And the only thing that will set us free
Is living through the pain
And the only thing that I'll guarantee
We'll never be the same

It feels like I'm still in a cage
And I scream till I'm blue in the face
Is it real or is it a phase?
I think the time has come to change my ways

I'm ready, I'm willing
To take what I've been giving
The pressure keeps rising
'Cause the truth is what I'm finding

We march out of the darkness
We ravel in the flames
The mission is accomplished
I'm ready for the cage

And the only thing that will set us free
Is living through the pain
And the only thing that I'll guarantee
We'll never be the same

And it's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine
It's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine

We march out of the darkness
We ravel in the flames
The mission is accomplished
I'm ready for the cage

And the only thing that will set us free
Is living through the pain
And the only thing that I'll guarantee
We'll never be the same

And it's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine

It's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine

It's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine
It's okay, it's alright
Just let go, you'll be fine
