

Sugar

Paper Route

Under the eyelids
Under the eyelids
That's where you're hiding
That's where you're hiding

Like I'm a stranger
Signaling danger
But I'm a beggar
But I'm a beggar

Take me back
Take me home
You were right
All Along
You are where I belong

If there's a sonnet
That makes you feel wanted
Then sugar I'm on it
Sugar I'm on it

A world in a world
A shell to a pearl
Is how I'll protect you
I'll always protect you

Take me back
Take me home
You were right
All along
You are where I belong
Where I belong

All I am
All I am
I've given you all I am
Given you all I am
You are where I belong

If I'm the great sea
You're what I'm reflecting
Blue in the evening
So blue in the evening

You hit like the lightning
A beauty so frightening
The Earth was dividing
The Earth was dividing
