

I've got a love that can never last
In and out and I'm fading fast
Here's how it happens with boys like me:
I make it seem like I'm so in love
With you, but it never does
Mean anything to me

Oh, oh, I'll fake a smile to make this so dangerous
You can watch me take this slow
You'll watch the line drop speed it up 'till we make your heart stop
You're a tease
You're the reason I lost it
You're the worst of the best and I want it
Make you believe this is more than lust tonight

Hold another drink 'till you fall
Take another pill for your high
This is the sound of breaking, this is the sound of breaking
Another silent assault, another unreturned stare
Another time you give up, another time I don't care
This is the sound of breaking, this is the sound of breaking

Oh, oh, I'll fake a smile to make this so dangerous
You can watch me take this slow
You'll watch the line drop speed it up 'till we make your heart stop
You're a tease
You're the reason I lost it
You're the worst of the best and I want it
Make you believe this is more than lust tonight

Giving in to this feeling of sinking
So far in that I can't return safely
Make you believe that this is more than lust tonight

It's never been this hard
You don't seem to let go
I've been thinking far too long and I'm losing all control
And there's a voice inside screaming for love and I know, I know

You're a tease
You're the reason I lost it
You're the worst of the best and I want it
Make you believe this is more than lust tonight

It's never been this hard
You don't seem to let go
I've been thinking far too long and I'm losing all control
And there's a voice inside screaming for love and I know, I know
