

The riches gone
A darker crown
The liar found
Mistakenly unbound
Your eternal kingdom dead
Your eternal kingdom dead

Always lose, devour
Always lose, devour
Thy kingdom come
Always lose, devour
Always lose, devour
Thy kingdom come

The wretched one
It's tortured frown
The dying sound
Audaciously profound
Your infernal kingdom wept
Your infernal kingdom wept

Always lose, devour
Always lose, devour
Thy kingdom come
Always lose, devour
Always lose, devour
Thy kingdom come

Fortune turns to die
Fortune turns to die
Returns to die

Way beyond trepidation
Preaching laws of a condemnation
Reaching out for who serves up high
With the heartless, you must try
Inner darkness, you must try
In the darkness, you will die

Begone the hours of distress
Behold a life of regret
Begone, behold as strife increases
Begone, unfold the towering resent
Begone, disposed and dreams are gone

Fortune turns to die
Fortune turns to die
Returns to die
