

All our human lordliness all our arrogance
Led us on the road to ruin a passage straight to hell
Immortal in the cyber world where the dead can dance
Where all horror and all sins are written on a bell

A man-made world
Of codes and bytes
Eternal dark
Eternal night

A reign of fire - trails of the horsemen
Beginning of mankind's fall
Into the darkness - age of destruction
Obey and fear the blackbell's call

Beyond the veil of lust and joy humanity got lost
Revival of insanity and long forgotten rites
Dancing to an evil beat into the holocaust
And for pleasures of the flesh we sell our bill of rights

The evil breed
Set demons free
Into the black
Welcome the night
