

The Final Command

Paragon

The prophecy
Of ancient times
Fortells a future bleak
Clairvoyant master
The alchemist
Visions of mankinds defeat

The warnings
The signs
See the black horseman ride
The demons
Will rise
On wings of death they glide

Far beyond reality
Far beyond our dreams
The final hour is at hand
I hear the last command

Polluted seas
No hope for life
The skies are turning red
All that was written
All that was said
Is now becoming so real

The warnings
The signs
See the black horseman ride
The demons
Will rise
On wings of death they glide

Far beyond reality
Far beyond our dreams
The final hour is at hand
I hear the last command

Searching for a sanctuary
Down in the land of doom
Damn all the visionaries
Nightmares are comin' true

Far beyond reality
Far beyond our dreams
The final hour is at hand
I hear the last command
