

Dawn Of Life

Paralysed Age

To be driven away
On a darkened sea
That's my point of view
To the dawn of my life
And I feel shelter
From the depth of your heart
Yes I feel shelter
But something strange unwraps my soul

Heaven comes and heaven goes
A feeling rises and then glows
You're so different from my own
You've left me standing here alone

Heaven comes and heaven goes
A feeling rises and then glows
You're so different from my own

Is it real is it fantasy
Is it faith is it mystery
All day long
I'm lost in a dream
Lost in the beauty of a daydream
And I feel shelter
From the depth of your heart
Yes I feel shelter
But something strange unwraps my soul

Heaven comes and heaven goes
A feeling rises and then glows
You're so different from my own

Heaven comes...
