

Train Wreck

Passafire

I was on the way to see you again
I was away to see you my friend
Time is on hold, life's a ghost
Reeling it in, like the coast

If you could find time
Look inside see if you see what I saw
Maybe it all was a dream

Talking all the time tellin' me that you got plans but you got plans with
Me (2x)

And I see, what I see to be true, what I think is you Because you sing like angel, and you lie like one too
You can say that you're sorry, but I'm afraid that won't do

Stop and take a break from the mirror
Cause if it should break, 7 years of bad luck
Oh what did you expect, a train wreck?

Because you sing like an angel, and you lie like one too, you c an say that
You're sorry, but I'm afraid that won't do (2x)
