

Arrive Like A Whisper

Patrick Park

I see you driving away
On some holiday
Just to leave it all behind
Because his wheels turn
You dont feel the burn
Of the things that you carried inside

You've been sharpening those blades
For too many days
You're tired of looking for a fight
But now and again
My unfortunate friend
We all do things we know are right

You call me up
On some rainy sunday
Cause you're all alone
But you know you wont be one day
Oh, one day

You're gunna ride the wind that rattles cage
You wont feel no pain when youre wide awake
And youll give anyone more than they can take
Arrive like a whisper, go out with a bang

Now you may bend or break
But that's a chance you'll take
When you're hell-bent on trouble found
But just so you know
The further you go
It gets so hard to turn around

You call me up
On some rainy sunday
Cause you're all alone
But you know you wont be one day
Oh, one day

You're gunna ride the wind that rattles cage
You wont feel no pain when youre wide awake
And youll give anyone more than they can take
Arrive like a whisper, go out with a bang.
