

Man Like You

Patrick Watson

I knew a boy who was swallowed by the sky
By the flashing lights

I knew a man who got lost in the big dark blue
And came out alive

I knew a boy I knew a man that looked a lot like you

I knew a time you could stand still beside Never rushing by

I knew a place you'd go for your head to explode
Into peace of mind

I knew a time I knew a place that felt a lot like you
I knew a boy I knew a man who looked a lot like you
Just like you

I knew a friend that would hold on to the flames
Keep them from burning you

I knew a smile like that could see through all of the stones
That the world had thrown

I knew a smile I knew a friend who looked a lot like you
I knew a boy I knew a man who looked a lot like you