

Longing To Hold You Again

Patti Page

All alone here am I so lonely I could cry
'Cause I'm longing to hold you again
Missing you is all I do
I dream the whole day through
How I'm longing to hold you again

The world is cold the world is gray
You took the sunshine away
You'll never know
How empty my arms have been

Till once more you're close to me
As close as we can be
I'll be longing to hold you again

The world is cold the world is gray
You took the sunshine away
You'll never know

Till once more you're close to me
As close as we can be
I'll be longing to hold you again
