

Once Upon A Dream

Patti Page

Once upon a dream
I saw a face in a crowd
And it looked a lot like your face
Once upon a dream
I heard a laugh and a sigh
And they sounded just like yours
Finding you is a sweet surprise
I can't believe my eyes
It's christmas but july's not through
So as long as I may live
The dream I hold in my heart always will be you

So as long as I may live the dream I hold in my heart
Always will be you
Always will be you
Always will be you
