

When I Stop Loving You

Paul Anka

When I stop loving you, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day
When I stop loving you, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

The day the world stops going 'round
And today my heartbeat starts to pound
When I stop loving you, baby
That'll be the day

When you stop loving me, baby
That'll be the day
When you stop loving me, baby
That'll be the day

The day my heart would ache and break
The day there'd be no wedding cake
When you stop loving me, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

Yes, I'll stop loving you
I'll say that we're through
When earth and skies disappear
But just as long as there's an earth
And as long as there's a sky
I'll always love you dear

If you should say goodbye, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

If you should say goodbye, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

The day that tear drops from my eyes
It fell like raindrops from the skies
If you should say goodbye, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

Yes, I'll stop loving you
I'll say that we're through
When earth and skies disappear
But just as long as there's an earth
And as long as there's a sky
I'll always love you dear

If you should say goodbye, baby
That'll be the day
That'll be the day

If you should say goodbye, baby
That'll be the day

That'll be the day

The day that tear drops from my eyes
That'll be the day
That'll be the day
That'll be the day
That'll be the day
