

We Will Hold On

Paul Baloché

We'll be tested by the fire
Persecuted and reviled maybe
Either way there will be trials
We will hold on

We'll be tested by the blessing
With all the comforts
Of the world surrounding
We will not forget the Savior
We will hold on

We will hold on to Your love
We will hold on to Your love
When the world is silent
Your praise unsung
We will hold on to Your love

When the battle rages on
When we fail to overcome
In our weakness Jesus
You make us strong

We will hold on to Your love
We will hold on to Your love

We will hold on, we will hold on
We will hold on, we will hold on
