

A Friend Like This

Paul Brandt

I know what you're going through there were times I've been there too we all need a shoulder to cry on all those worries and anxieties just let me put your mind at ease cause the night is always darkest before the dawn

Yeah it's alright
it's gonna be ok
you don't have to worry anymore
Yeah it's alright
just let me light up the way you never had a friend like this before

Sometimes it seems the road ahead is twists and turns and all dead ends it's hard to know which way to go But I will be your life long friend the one on whom you can depend even when it seems like you're alone

Because it's alright
yeah, it's gonna be ok
you don't have to worry anymore
Yeah it's alright
It's gonna be a brighter day
you don't have to worry anymore
you never had a friend like this before

Because it's alright
you don't have to worry anymore
Yeah it's alright
It's gonna be a bright new day
you don't have to worry anymore
you never had a friend like this before never had a friend like this you've never had a friend like this before
