

Until Death Do Them Part

Paul Kelly

We are gathered here today to join a woman and a man
And to witness what they say as before us they stand
In sickness and in health, through the rich times and the poor
They are bound to be together and to live under God's law

Until death do them part
Or the stars fall from the sky
Until death do them part
And the rivers all run dry
What God has joined together
Let no one tear apart
They are bound to love each other
Until death do them part

We are gathered here today to join a husband and a wife
So I call on you to pray for good luck in their life
Through thick and through thin, through the good times and the bad
May they always be respectful and make each other glad

Until death do them part
When God calls from on high
Until death do them part
And it's time to say goodbye
What God has joined together
Let no one tear apart
They are bound to love each other
Until death do them part
Yes they are bound to be together
Until death do them part
