1. I hear the drizzle on the way

like a memory it falls

soft and warm continuing tapping on my roof and walls.

And from the shelter of my mind through the window of my eyes

I gaze beyond the rain-drenched streets to England where my heart lies.

2. My mind's distracted and confused my thoughts are many miles away they lie with you in your sleep kiss you when you start the day.

And this song I was writing is left undone I don't know why I spend my time writing songs I can't believe with words that tear and strain to rhyme.

3. And so you see I have come to doubt all that I once held as true I stand alone without beliefs the only truth I know is you.

And as I watch the drops of rain weave their weary paths and die I know that I am like the rain there but for the grace of you go I.
