

Study In Blue

Paul Weller

Blow the winds
That breathe through
Windows
Sending curtains too

Afternoon shade
Peerless sunlight
In your eyes
Of blue

Tell you that
I love you baby
Never more it's true

Everything
I've ever felt
Is deep inside of you

Stronger all the time
In all our branches
20/20 sight
It's taking chances
Stronger, stronger - why?
And you and I fly
Visionaries fight
For what they know
To be true

There's a white cat
In the garden
Tulips now in bloom
Lazy on
This afternoon love
Making love
With you

Birds are singing
Bees be buzzing
The grass is Talking too

Everything
I've ever wanted
Is inside of you

Stronger all the time
In all our branches
20/20 sight
It's taking chances
Stronger, stronger - why?
And you and I fly
Visionaries fight
For what they know
To be true
