i don't want your blessing i don't want your taste
i make a confession:
i no longer know my place i don't want your respect i don't want your war
i don't want your heroin
of all the things
that you supply
if you can't get me now
i don't want never
can i have your blessing to dislike your face
i make my confession:
i hear your voice, i hit erase of all the things that she brings of all the things that you suppy
