

Nothing To No One

Paul Westerberg

there's a world in between being everything
to everyone
and being nothing
to no one

giving life to a dream
giving hope
giving love
giving some
and giving nothing
to no one

a world of extreme reflection hear his scream for affection

being everything to everyone
and being nothing
to no one
I am a button
to sew on
