

Built Low

Paw

Well now, I guess you found me
Let your body cup around me
Have your daddy up and down me
Let my enemies surround me
Was I dumb to stand so tall?
Was I dumb to stand at all?
Is that what brought you here?
Is that what draws you near?
Well, you ain't seen nothing yet

Yeah, watch how low I get
Yeah, get much lower yet
No depths where I won't go
Thank god I'm built so low

In a way I guess you know me
But no way have you outgrown me
Go on and reap you've sown me
Girl you know I owe you only
Was I dumb to stand so tall?
Was I dumb to stand at all?
Is what I sense now fear?
Is that what draws you near?
Well, you ain't seen nothing yet

Yeah, watch how low I get
Yeah, get much lower yet
No depths where I won't go
Thank god I'm built so low
Afraid of heights
Afraid to go higher
Get down closer to the wire
Thank god I'm built so low

In a way I guess you had me
Now you think you can tell me what's bad for me
Well, how sad for me

Turn away because you know me
Turn around because I'm built so low
Thank the serpent for the apple
Eve was bored before he made the show
Come on deeper to the bottom
Sink your ship, it's better down below
Check around before you meet me
Know this one before it's time to go
Burn this one because you know me
Burn this one because I'm built so low
Thank god I'm built so low
It's built low
Built so low
Built so low
Built so low
