

Hush child, or i'll close your pretty mouth.

Lolita, spread your pretty legs
So daddy can see just where he wants to pray
The sun shines through your flimsy dress
Put your little body on display
Yeah, i didn't mean to hit you so hard
I didn't mean to push you too far away
Yeah, i didn't mean to hurt you so bad
I didn't mean to push you too far away
For you to come back home

Lolita, stay, i can't hold anybody else
Lolita, go, i can't stand to see you play around

And every scar i leave on you
Reminds me of just how it used to be
Hey, you're just a little play thing
How come you mean so much to me?
Oh, stay with me, runaway, stay with me, hide away
Stay with me, get away
Ah, stay with me, go away
Stay with me, run away
I want you, to go
I want you to stay

Lolita, stay, i can't hold anybody else
Lolita, go, i can't stand to see you play around
I'm gonna tell you the way it's gonna be from now on

You're always gonna be my little girl.

Lolita, you, you can't stay
'cause i won't keep you
And baby, you, you can't go
'cause i won't let you
oh, maybe i've asked for too much
And maybe I should not care
But why in heaven would you wanna stay?
Why the hell would i want you here
I really want you here
Child, it doesn't
Oh, matter what you ask
I'm gonna let you down
I know i'm never, never, never gonna be forgiven

Aw, won't you stay with me child.
