

Crosswinds

Peabo Bryson

I've been in love a time or two
Well, I've played the game before
And the wisdom I'll pass it all to you
'Cause love is so much more
More than just a crazy game
A fantasy full of joy and pain
Part of reality
It's calling out your name

Somebody said that you've been searchin'
I know you've been, for the love you lost
You never knew how much it hurt you, hurt you
You tried to make a new start
Don't you know that time
Can always heal a broken heart
When you know in your mind
He still holds a part
Calling out your name

Oh, I'm caught up in the crosswinds
You've got me hungry for your love
I'm caught up in the crosswinds
I don't know if I'm right or wrong
Isn't it a shame, yeah

Isn't it a shame
Lowdown, dirty shame
Yeah, yeah

So you think you'll never love again
Well, I know how you feel
But life will never be the same
Until you love for real
Life is just a crazy game
A fantasy full of joy and pain
Part of reality
It's calling out your name
Calling your name

Somebody said that you've been searchin'
I know you've been, in the back of your mind
You didn't know that he would hurt you, hurt you
You put your love on the line
Don't you know that time
Can always heal a broken heart
Even though in your mind
He still holds a part
Calling out your name
Calling your name

Whoa, I'm caught up in the crosswinds
You got me hungry for your love
I'm caught up in the crosswinds
I don't know if I'm right or wrong
Isn't it a shame, yeah
Lowdown, dirty shame

Girl, you got me hungry for your love
Your love, oh, yeah
Girl, you got me callin', callin', callin'
Calling out your name

Caught up in the crosswinds
I'm caught up in the crosswinds
Yeah, yeah
Calling out your name

Girl, you got me hungry for your love
Caught up in the crosswinds
Girl, you got me hungry for your love...
