

You take me higher
To a place I thought that I could never reach
You're my one desire
My love for you came so naturally
It feels so strange
To hear you say you're leaving me today
I'm gonna tell you it's okay, I'll love you anyway
I hope you know you mean the world to me

Oh no, our love won't fall apart
It's too beautiful—it's like a work of art
And as long as you are mine, I know that I'll be fine
And I will be forever in your life

Because you took a heart so scarred and broken
And you filled with a reason to believe
Now the love inside of me decides to give itself
Love's its own exotic melody

Girl, you're always on my mind
And no one knows the loneliness I face
And I'm gonna be alright in time
'Cause I know you'll be coming back to me

Oh no, our love won't fall apart
It's just too beautiful—a it's like a work of art
And as long as you are mine, I know that I'll be fine
I will be forever in your life

Girl, you took a heart so scarred and broken
And you filled it with a reason to believe
Now the love inside of me decides to give itself
Love's its own exotic melody

I fantasize just to get myself through
About me you loving me, me loving you
Making love together

'Cause you took a heart so scarred and broken
And you filled it with a reason to believe
And now the love inside of me decides to give itself
Love's its own exotic melody
