

You Don't Walk Away From Love

Peace

I'm not leaving footprints behind me
I'm not moving anywhere fast
My body's reluctant to exit
And to leave what I adore and treasure in the past

Cause every time I try to walk away
I can't move my legs
I can't turn my head
I just wanna look you in the face
Cause you don't walk away from love

I walk over miles of mountains
I walked from the sea to the sea
Marching to your beat like a zombie
And now I'm mesmerized and standing still, stationary

Every time I walk down other roads
There's blockades and rivers wide enough
And mountains high

Every time I try to walk away
I can't move my legs
I can't turn my head
I just wanna look you in the face
Cause you don't walk away from love

I just wanna love you everyday
Because I found what everybody else is looking for
You don't walk away from love
You don't walk away
Don't walk away from
You don't walk away from love, love
You don't walk away from love, love

(Don't walk away from love, love)
Everytime I try to walk away
I can't move my legs
I can't turn my head
(You don't walk away from love, love)
I just wanna look you in the face
Cause you don't walk away from love
You don't walk away from love
No, you don't walk away from
You don't walk away from love
