Gold Wedding Ring

Peggy Lee

I met my love in the days of the spring Summer, he gave me a gold wedding ring Autumn, he built me a house made of stone Winter, he left me to live there alone

I'll bank the fires from the dark bogs of Pete Love's full of waiting and love's bittersweet Spring will be coming and brooks they will sing I'll still be wearing my gold wedding ring