

He Needs Me

Peggy Lee

He needs me
He doesn't know it
But he needs me

And so no matter
Where he goes
And though he doesn't care
He knows I'm there

He needs me
I ought to leave him
But he needs me

I guess it isn't very bright
Just to tag along
But right or wrong
I'm here, I'm his

And I'll be
A friend or a lover
Because my one ambition is

To wake him
And make him discover
He needs me

I've got to follow
Where he leads me
Or else he'll never know
That I need him
Just as he needs me
