He needs me He doesn't know it But he needs me

And so no matter
Where he goes
And though he doesn't care
He knows I'm there

He needs me
I ought to leave him
But he needs me

I guess it isn't very bright Just to tag along But right or wrong I'm here, I'm his

And I'll be A friend or a lover Because my one ambition is

To wake him And make him discover He needs me

I've got to follow
Where he leads me
Or else he'll never know
That I neede him
Just as he needs me
