

I Didn't Find Love

Peggy Lee

I found a tire, I did not leaks
I found a shoe, it did not squeaks, squeak
I found a bird and he could sing, peep
I didn't find love

I found a pot, it was broke, drip
I found a scissors, and they could cut, snip
I found a clock and it could tick tock
I didn't find love

I have all the luxuries
I don't look, they come for me
But I live and anticipate it
For lack of love, I am frustrated

I don't need the screeep-a-dee-screep-dip
I don't need a creep-a-dee-snip-drip
I don't need a creep-a-dee-snip-tock
I need to find love

I have all the luxuries
I don't look, they come to me
But I live and anticipate it
For lack of love, I am frustrated

I don't need the screeep-a-dee-screep-dip
I don't need a creep-a-dee-snip-drip
I don't need a creep-a-dee-snip-tock
I need to find love

I've got to find love
I want to find love
I need to find love
