

Love 101

Pepper

She called me over wanting some good love
She said she wanted the number one rub, oh

I got it hot on the bottom and above.
Yes I can
But Soon as I arrived I knocked twice on her door
I knocked again, and then once more.
Yet somehow I'm still surprised.
How could this be?

Alone again tonight.
Under the glow of an orange street light.
Orange street light
This experiment just can't be right

Dialing me at 4 am
She calls it late night
She said I'm Sorry let's make it right
Let's make the plan for the afternoon
I guess I can
But midday here I am waiting on her love
What can I have been thinking of
Looks like i need someone else to rub

Alone again tonight.
Under the glow of an orange street light.
Orange street light
This experiment just can't be right

Love 101 (2x)

Alone again tonight.
Under the glow of an orange street light.
Orange street light
