Driving back from the bar
Check engine light in my car
This might not be the right plan
Thinking of driving again
Squandered too much time
Locked up inside of my mind
Talked to myself out of my dreams
Afraid to fail routine

Take action, make it happen
What are you waiting for
Too much talking, too much knocking
Just kick down the door
Make a move, see the light
Make a move, it'll be alright

Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Where you can live, if you want to live
Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Cause right now, your life is
More than just being alive

I just need to begin
Stuck in my indecision
Some people lost at sea
They look a lot like me
No risk no reward I'm told
Jump now before I get old
This is my new train of thought
Just shit or get off the pot

Think action, make it happen
What are you waiting for
Don't keep stopping, what you're wanting
Kick down the fucking door
Now make a move, roll the dice
Make a move, it'll be alright

Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Where you can live, if you want to live
Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Cause this life, this life is
More than just being alive
More than just being alive

Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Where you can live, if you want to live
Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Cause this life, this life is
Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Where you can live, if you want to live
Whoa yeah, welcome to your life
Cause this life, cause this life, this life is
More than just being alive
