

Face to Face with Hell

Pertness

My greed is growing
I am the king of gods
My soul is filled with endless glory and fame

I see perfection
I see my creature rise
The innocence I've lost will never return

Face to face with hell
The evil is back again
Someday the world will fall
fall into the flames

I see his anger
I'm trapped inside his rage
Misconception of technology

Evil infection
I can't do anything
This is the way the world is damned to the end

Face to face with hell
The evil is back again
Someday the world will fall
fall into the flames

I see perfection
I see my creature rise
The innocence I've lost will never return

Evil infection
I can't do anything
This is the way the world is damned to the end

Face to face with hell
The evil is back again
Someday the world will fall
fall into the flames
