Flying to the Sun

Pertness

Another light lost from my face
Making trouble, raising hell
A wall of stone I built within
I never meant to start a war?

Most of us all are holy ghosts
Insanity comes creeping forth
I won't give up till I suffocate
Death and glory – walking side by side

Abandoned by our dreams
We have gone insane
Breaking the chain of pain

We are flying to the sun
Flying to the sun

A new world order set in place
The past is broken we pay the price
We are all standing in the line of fire
Clouds of horror beyond the darkened sky

Chaos and pain seem to rule the day
"no panic" is what they say
The script is written, the end is near
"Believe in us" is all we hear

Abandoned by our dreams
We have gone insane
Breaking the chain of pain

We are flying to the sun
Flying to the sun

Flying to the sun
