

Fortress

Pertness

It's time to face
your darkest destiny
Just another reason
I have nothing to lose

Tear down the walls
My dreams are falling down
There is no more real option for me - for me

Life is gone
Life is gone away
And all my visions are fading away

Crucify your addiction
Sacrifice your world to see the light

There is a fortress around your soul
I hear the sound of darkness rise
Here comes the final day when freedom dies
I'll see your face of rage

Sometimes I feel
you rape my fantasy
Drink the holy water eternal hell you'll find

Wake up your mind
I'm waiting for the day
When deliverance finally fails - for you

Life is gone
Life is gone away
And all my visions are fading away

Crucify your addiction
Sacrifice your world to see the light

There is a fortress around your soul
I hear the sound of darkness rise
Here comes the final day when freedom dies
I'll see your face of rage
