

Waves of Pain

Pertness

I can't wait till tomorrow comes
You're telling lies to my vision
No time to say good-bye
The final act begins

Sirens screaming in the night
I'm scared of waking up
No time to say good bye
The final act begins

The underworld is calling
They let you drown in waves of pain

There's a power grown beyond control
No new tomorrow waits
My pride is gone I care no more
The darkness fills my soul

The underworld is calling
They let you drown in waves of pain

The underworld is calling
They let you drown in waves of pain

Resurrection of the dead
My army of disgrace
As blind as night can be
Everything turns to black

The underworld is calling
They let you drown in waves of pain
