

Blueberries

Pete Francis

Down by the crossing
You've been telling you're heart
There'sso much room
Why don't you just get up early
Stop trying to figure it out

Lets go to the mountain
Watch the flashing sea
Lets eat blueberries
Walk through the golden trees
See a raven fly, big pink sky
But for now baby, the world's for you and I

Go on, you can go on
Your heat is strong, so go on
Go on, you can go on
The night is long, so go on

Motor feels good
Engine's running like it should
I don't want to leave here
I've been telling my self, walking and talking
I mine as well as get up off the ground

Lets go to the mountain
Watch the flashing sea
Lets eat blueberries
Walk through the golden trees
See a raven fly, big pink sky
But for now baby, the world's for you and I

Go on, you can go on
Your heat is strong, so go on
Go on, you can go on
The night is long, so go on
