

Smiling Through The Tears

Peter and the Test Tube Babies

Last time in Germany
A 5-1 victory
This time it will be better still.

Hear the 3 Lions roar
Every time England scores
We'll take the World Cup from Brazil.

The waiting's almost over
I can feel it in the air

England will win the cup
Okay, we'll need some luck.
It'll be our first in forty years.
England will rule again
There will be no more pain.
We'll all be smiling through the tears.

No more excuses please
No more missed penalties
It's time to justify your pain.

Please leave your wives at home
You can win this on your own.
While Sven and Becks are getting laid.

The waiting's almost over
I can feel it in the air.

England will win the cup
Okay, we'll need some luck.
It'll be our first in forty years.
England will rule again
There will be no more pain.
We'll all be smiling through the tears.

Final whistle, England wins
Celebrations can begin
Could be another forty years!
Another forty years...

England will win the cup
Okay, we'll need some luck.
It'll be our first in forty years.
England will rule again
There will be no more pain.
We'll all be smiling through the tears.
