

Hope

Peter Criss

I'm afraid to walk out the door
I don't think I could do this once more
Oh, babe, you give me hope
I was alone most of the time
Didn't have the right sense to hide
Oh, babe, ooh babe, you give me hope

It's a hell of a crime to need you
(Ooh, such a crime)
Now that I got the time to keep you
(I got the time)
I had no hope and no love shining through
Baby now I found you

Now that I found it's true
I know the things I wanted to
Oh babe, oh babe, you give me hope, yeah
We can unlock the doors of Hell

And feel the heavens as well
Oh babe, ooh babe, you give me the hope

It's a hell of a crime to need you
(Ooh, such a crime)
Now that I got the time to keep you
(I got the time)
I had no hope and no love shining through
Baby now I found you
It's a hell of a crime to need you
(Ooh, such a crime)
Now that I got the time to keep you
(Now that I've got the time)
It's a hell of a crime to need you
(Ooh, such a hell of a crime)
Baby now that I found you
There's nothin' but truth
