

Whisper

Peter Criss

I was lying here looking out the window
It was raining, ooh, raining
I said to myself, "time to get up, do something"
It was raining, oh raining
Time has a way of slipping each day into rain (whoa)
People running everywhere, I don't care
I just rather lie here and whisper
Oh, whisper how I love you'
Oh, oh, oh, oh, lemme whisper
Thinking about this and that, and that as a matter of fact
I just rather lie beside you
Whisper

(Whisper)

Time has a way of slipping each day into rain (oh, rain)

So I whisper, oh baby, I love you (I love you)
Ooh, I love you (I love you)
Time has a way of slipping each day into rain (oh, rain)
I think I hear it thunder
Oh, let me whisper (I love you)
I love you (I love you)
Love you (Let me whisper)
Oh, let me whisper (let me whisper) (I love you)
Oh, let me whisper (whisper)
(I love you)
Oh, oh, oh, let me whisper (whisper)
Mmm-hmmm, whisper (whisper)
(Whisper)
(I love you)
Whisper
(Whisper)
Whisper
(Whisper)
(I love you)
